ANNUAL APPEAL:

In our tradition, each of us is called upon to support the synagogue as generously as we are able. Your response helps sustain CBST's uplifting services, engaging communal activities, enriching educational programs, and bold, ongoing pursuit of social justice.

OPEN DOOR FUND:

Each gift is a statement of support and appreciation for our signature commitment to sustain an Open Door, welcoming ALL to share Jewish sacred time, the insights of Torah, the joy of song, and the warmth and strength of community at High Holy Day, Shabbat, and holiday services throughout the year – always without charge.

YIZKOR APPEAL:

Recognizing the blessing of memory, we honor our loved ones with the traditional act of tzedakah.

YIZKOR BOOK OF REMEMBRANCE:

Our keepsake book, distributed on Yom Kippur, contains the names of community leaders, family, friends, and loved ones who no longer sit beside us, but who live on in our hearts.

MAHZOR BOOKPLATES:

Prayerbook dedications are expressions of our love, admiration, and appreciation for special people. Beautifully inscribed bookplates are placed into our books and a listing of new dedications is publicly acknowledged on Yom Kippur.

ROSH PINAH (Cornerstone):

CBST Members (only) whose cumulative giving from Sept. 2019 thru Aug. 2020 exceeds $1,800 (singles) or $3,600 (couples), excluding Capital Campaign, will be invited to the Teaching by Rabbi Kleinbaum on Thurs. Sept. 24

DONORS whose cumulative giving from Sept. 2019 thru Aug. 2020 totals $1000 or more, excluding Capital Campaign, will be publicly acknowledged in the Yom Kippur online publication.

Contributions are fully tax deductible. Your participation and support throughout the year make CBST a vibrant spiritual community.

Thank you!
