

A Letter to the Latinx Community from over 500 Jewish Leaders

To Our Latinx Family,

We reach out to you in anguish this week, after the terrorist attack in El Paso that claimed 22 lives and revealed to the nation and the world the full depth of the hatred simmering in this country in our day. The gunman was a white supremacist. He held by the ideology of racial superiority and subjugation of people of color that is built into our country's DNA. And he was a white nationalist, part of a radical social movement modeled after Nazi Germany whose goal is to eradicate people of color and Jews from the country. And this man was driven by a particular animus toward the Latinx community.

Over the past several years, white supremacy has been cruelly fueled by opportunistic politicians, and as a result the hatred of black and brown people is flourishing in our day. The President has used language to describe the Latinx community that makes us sick: he warns of an "invasion" at the border, of "rapists" and "violent criminals." He claims Latinos are taking our jobs, endangering the American way of life. He monsterizes those who come to our country seeking refuge and a better life. Saturday's shooting is the natural outcome of the marriage of that frenzied hatred to our country's shameful addiction to guns, weapons of war

The Latinx community is under attack. Our hearts break with you as you bury your dead this week, and as you work to reassure your children that they are safe, even amidst the backdrop of such hatred. Our Jewish community was also targeted by white supremacist violence this past year. We are still reeling after two of our synagogues were shot up, our people killed at prayer. When we were attacked, we were lifted by the love and friendship of our black, Latinx, Muslim, Christian, Catholic and Sikh friends and family. We were reminded that we are not alone. That greater than this wave of hatred and cruelty is the love and friendship that bond us to one another.

We say to you today: We love you.

In the shadow of this horrific attack, hundreds of immigrants were arrested this week in ICE raids, and many thousands more fear arrest and deportation. Even as the Latinx community grieves, you are told—in words and in action—to "go home." But this is your home, as much as it is any of ours. This country, for all its complexities and challenges, is founded on a promise that we, the people, can form a more perfect union. Together, we are the people. We stand with you and with your children, and together we will shine a new light of hope and possibility across this nation.

There is a new America being born. It is built on justice and mercy, and it makes room for you, and for us, and for everyone. To usher this new America into the world, we—every one of us—will need to stand together.

With love and in friendship,

A Nuestra Familia Latinx,

Nos contactamos con angustia esta semana, después del ataque terrorista en El Paso que se cobró 22 vidas. El ataque reveló a la nación y al mundo la profundidad total del odio que hierve en este país en nuestros días. El pistolero era un supremacista blanco. Sostuvo la ideología de la superioridad racial y la subyugación de las personas de color que está integrada en el ADN de nuestro país. Y era un nacionalista blanco, parte de un movimiento social radical inspirado en la Alemania nazi cuyo objetivo fue erradicar a las personas de color y a los judíos de ese país. Y este hombre fue impulsado por un ánimo particular hacia usted: la comunidad latina.

En los últimos años, la supremacía blanca ha sido alimentada cruelmente por políticos oportunistas, y el odio a los negros y marrones está floreciendo. El Presidente ha usado un lenguaje para describir su comunidad que nos enferma: advierte que "violadores" y "criminales violentos" cruzan la frontera. Afirma que está tomando nuestros trabajos, poniendo en peligro el estilo de vida estadounidense. Él habla de la "invasión" en la frontera, monstruizando a los que vienen a nuestro país en busca de refugio y una vida mejor. El tiroteo del sábado es el resultado natural del matrimonio de ese odio frenético con la vergonzosa adicción de nuestro país a las armas, las armas de guerra.

La comunidad Latinx está bajo ataque. Nuestros corazones se rompen contigo cuando entierras a tus muertos esta semana y mientras trabajas para asegurarles a tus hijos que están a salvo, incluso en el contexto de tal odio. Nuestra comunidad también fue blanco de la violencia supremacista blanca durante el año pasado. Todavía estamos tambaleándonos después de que dos de nuestras sinagogas fueron disparadas, nuestra gente asesinada en oración. Cuando fuimos atacados, fuimos levantados por el amor y la amistad de nuestros amigos y familiares negros, latinos, musulmanes, cristianos, católicos y sijes. Nos recordaron que no estamos solos. Que más grande que esta ola de odio y crueldad es el amor y la amistad que nos une.

Te decimos hoy: Te amamos.

Incluso a la sombra de este horrible ataque, cientos de inmigrantes fueron arrestados esta semana en una redada de ICE, y muchos miles más temen ser arrestados y deportados. Aun cuando su comunidad sufre, se le dice, en palabras y en acción, que "vaya a casa". Pero esta es su casa, tanto como la nuestra. Este país, a pesar de todas sus complejidades y desafíos, se basa en la promesa de que nosotros, la gente, podemos formar una unión más perfecta. Juntos somos la gente. Estamos con usted y con sus hijos, y juntos brillaremos una nueva luz de esperanza y posibilidad en toda esta nación.

Nace una nueva América. Está construida sobre la justicia y la misericordia, y hace espacio para usted, para nosotros y para todos. Para introducir esta nueva América en el mundo, nosotros, cada uno de nosotros, tendremos que estar unidos.

Con amor y amistad-
