Hashkiveinu /
Music and English addition by Rabbi Josh Zweiback
Hashkiveinu Adonai eloheinu l’ishalom, v’ha-amideinu malkeinu l’chayim.
Ufros aleinu sukat sh’lomecha,
Shelter us beneath thy wings, O Adonai
Guard us from all harmful things, O Adonai
Keep us safe throughout the night
Till we wake with morning’s light
Teach us, God, wrong from right. Amen
I Have a Little Dreydel
By Mikhl Gelbart, arr. Matthew Lazar

I have a little dreydel. I made it out of clay.
And when it's dry and ready, then dreydel I shall play.
Oh dreydel, dreydel, dreydel, I made it out of clay.
Oh dreydel, dreydel, dreydel, then dreydel I shall play.

Oh it had such a lovely body, with legs so short and straight.
Oh when it's all tuckered out and tired, it drops, and then I win.

The Latke Song
Debbie Friedman

I am so mixed up that I cannot tell you,
I'm sitting in this blender turning brown.
I've made friends with the onions and the flour,
And the cook is scouting oil in Midtown.
I sit here wondering what will come of me,
I can't be eaten looking as I do.
I need someone to take me out and cook me,
Or I'll really end up in a royal stew.

CHORUS:
I am a latke, I am a latke,
And I am waiting for Chanukah to come
I am a latke, I am a latke,
And I am waiting for Chanukah to come.

Every holiday has foods so special,
I'd like to have that same attention too,
I do not want to spend life in this blender,
Wondering what I'm supposed to do.
Matzah & charoset are for Pesach,
Chopped liver & challah for Shabbat,
Blinzes on Shavuot are delicious
And gefilte fish no holiday's without.

CHORUS:
I am a latke, I am a latke...
Composer Feature: Benedetto Marcello

Benedetto Marcello was born into an aristocratic Venetian family in 1865. The family's exalted rank decreed that the young Marcello should receive a thorough education in music and the other arts, but that the only appropriate career for one of his social standing was in jurisprudence, while he could cultivate music as a 'nobile dilettante.' The majority of Marcello's compositions date from the early years of his life. Marcello's most ambitious undertaking, the setting of the Italian paraphrase of the first fifty Psalms by his friend Girolamo Ascanio Giustiniani, published in eight volumes between 1724 and 1726, was both the climax and the crowning conclusion of his musical career.

PRAYER for OUR COUNTRY  Rabbi Ayelet Cohen

Our God and God of our ancestors,
help this country and all who dwell within it.

Help us to experience the blessings of our lives and circumstances,
To be vigilant, compassionate, and brave.

Strengthen us when we are afraid,
Help us to channel our anger, so that it motivates us to action.

Help us to feel our fear, so that we do not become numb.

Help us to be generous with others, so that we raise each other up.

Help us to be humble in our fear,
knowing that as vulnerable as we feel,

There are those at greater risk, and

That it is our holy work to stand with them.

Help us to taste the sweetness of liberty,
To not take for granted the freedoms won
in generations past or in recent days.

To heal and nourish our democracy,
that it may be like a tree planted by the water
whose roots reach down to the stream;

It need not fear drought when it comes,
its leaves are always green (Jeremiah 17:8).

Source of all Life,
Guide our leaders with righteousness,

That they may use their influence and authority to speak truth and act for justice (Isaiah 16:3-5).

May all who dwell in this country
share in its bounty, enjoy its freedoms,
and be protected by its laws.

May this nation use its power and wealth
to be a voice for justice,
peace, and equality for all who dwell on earth.

May we be strong and have courage
To be bold in our action and deep in our compassion,
To discern when we must listen and when we must act,

To uproot bigotry, intolerance, misogyny, racism,
discrimination, and violence in all its forms,

To celebrate the many faces of God reflected in the wondrous diversity of humanity,
To welcome the stranger and the immigrant and to honor the gifts of those who seek refuge and possibility here, as they have since before this nation was born.

Let justice well up like waters, and righteousness
like a mighty stream (Amos 5:24)

Lehrhaus 5780: “Care-Being” Text Study & Support Group
Cooperberg-Rittmaster Rabbinical Intern Deborah Megdal will lead a text study & support group for caregivers, in all the forms that we care for those we love. We’ll study one text each session & open up about our own lives – the joys, struggles, & fears. As Deborah taught: “If we can’t pull Joseph out, we might need to jump into the pit. Instead of giving care, we might need to embody care through our presence…care-being...Even if we don’t know what to do, even if we don’t know what to say, our presence with an engaged heart is itself care.” Read last year’s drashah: bit.ly/CRRRI-Deborah-Megdal-Drashah

Questions? Jesse Katz – jkatz@cbst.org
Antisemitism is on the rise in the US and globally. There are accusations of antisemitism on the left and on the right. So many of us assume we understand what it is. Is today's antisemitism the same as it was in Europe? What is the source of antisemitism? What is the relationship between antisemitism and white nationalism? What can we do about it? In this four-session class, we will explore the history and current expressions of antisemitism.

Chanukah Candle Blessings & Ritual

Set up your chanukiyah facing a window. On the first night, place one candle in the chanukiyah, in the spot furthest to the right. On the following nights, add one more candle each night, from right to left.¹ Light the candles from left to right. Lighting is ideally done right after dark, except on Friday, when it is ideally done before sundown.

Light the shamash (lighter candle) before saying these blessings.

Baruch atah Adonai elohei nu melech ha’olam asher kid’shanu b’mitz’votav v’tzivanu l’hadlik ner shel Chanukah.

Blessed are you, Source of Light our God, the sovereign of all worlds, who has made us holy with your commandments and commanded us to kindle the Chanukah lights.

Baruch atah Adonai elohei nu melech ha’olam sh’asah nisim la’avoteinu ba’yanim haheim ba’zman hazeh.

Blessed are you, Miraculous our God, the sovereign of all worlds, who made miracles for our ancestors in ancient times at this season.

On the first night only:

Baruch atah Adonai elohei nu melech ha’olam she’hecheyanu v’kiyamanu, v’higiyanu la’zman hazeh.

Blessed are you, Sustainer our God, the sovereign of all worlds, who has enlivened us and sustained us and enabled us to reach this moment.

¹ In the Talmud, Shabbat, p. 21b, there is a disagreement between Hillel and Shammai about how to light the Chanukah candles. Hillel says we start with one on the first night, and increase each night, so the candles correspond to the day of the holiday. Shammai says that we start with eight, and decrease each night, corresponding to the days left of the holiday. We follow Hillel, who says to increase our candles in order to increase in holiness. How can you use the days of Hanukkah to increase holiness in your life?
Haneirot hallalu anachnu madlikim al hanisim v'al hanifla'ot v'al hamilchamot she'asita la'avoteinu (ul'imoteinu) bayamim haheim ba'zman hazeh, al y'dei kohanecha hakedoshim. V'chol sh'monat y'mei Chanukah haneirot hallalu kodesh heim, v'ein lanu r'shut lehishtameish bahem, elah lirotam bil'vad, k'dei l'hodot ul'hallel l'shimcha hagadol, al nisecha v'al niflotecha v'al yeshuatecha.

We are kindling these lights for the miracles and the wonders, the redemptive acts and the battles that You waged for our ancestors in ancient days at this season, by the work of your holy priests. All eight days of Chanukah, these lights are holy, and we do not have permission to use them, except to look at them in order to thank and praise your great name for your miracles, your wonders, and your redemption.

Rock of Ages – Ma'oz Tzur (singable English translation by Marcus Jastrow and Gustav Gottheil)

Rock of Ages, let our song
Praise your saving power.
You amidst the raging foes
Were our sheltering tower.
Furious, they assailed us,
But your arm availed us.
And thy word broke their sword
When our own strength failed us.

Ma'oz tzur yeshu'ati,
Lecha na'eh leshabeiach.
Tikon beit tefilati
Vesham todah nezabeiach.
Le'eit tachin matbeiach,
Mitzar ham'nabeiach,
Az egmor beshir mizmor
