Composer Feature: Rabbi Hanna Tiferet Siegel

Rabbi Hanna Tiferet Siegel was the first woman to receive the title of Eshet Hazon/Woman of Vision, and Miyaledet Neshama/Midwife of the Soul at a ceremony designed for her on Shavu’ot in 1982. She received ordination as a Rabbinic Pastor in 1992 from Reb Zalman Schachter-Shalomi and as a Rabbi in 2003 from Reb Zalman and many of her rabbinic colleagues in Jewish Renewal. She also earned a Masters of Jewish Studies Degree at Boston Hebrew College in 2003. Hanna studied at the Hebrew University in Jerusalem as a Melton Senior Educator in 1996-97. She is currently a member of the ALEPH (Alliance for Jewish Renewal) Hashpa’ah Faculty.

Condolences
We extend our deepest condolences to CBST members Karen Krop, Stefanie Siegmund, Daniel Krop-Siegmond, and Eli Krop-Siegmond on the death of Karen’s father, Myron Krop, z”l, who died on Feb. 18 at age 90.

The CBST community extends condolences to mourners among us.

May God comfort you among all who mourn. We pray for peace.
PRAYER for OUR COUNTRY Rabbi Ayelet Cohen

Our God and God of our ancestors, bless this country and all who dwell within it.

Help us to experience the blessings of our lives and circumstances, to be vigilant, compassionate, and brave.

Strengthen us when we are afraid, help us to channel our anger, so that it motivates us to action. Help us to feel our fear, so that we do not become numb. Help us to be generous with others, so that we raise each other up.

Help us to be humble in our fear, knowing that as vulnerable as we feel, there are those at greater risk, and that it is our holy work to stand with them.

Help us to taste the sweetness of liberty, to not take for granted the freedoms won in generations past or in recent days. To heal and nourish our democracy, that it may be like a tree planted by the water whose roots reach down to the stream; it need not fear drought when it comes, its leaves are always green (Jeremiah 17:8).

Source of all Life, Guide our leaders with righteousness, strengthen their hearts, but keep them from hardening. That they may use their influence and authority to speak truth and act for justice (Isaiah 16:3-5).

May all who dwell in this country share in its bounty, enjoy its freedoms, and be protected by its laws.

May this nation use its power and wealth to be a voice for justice, peace, and equality for all who dwell on earth. May we be strong and have courage to be bold in our action and deep in our compassion, to discern when we must listen and when we must act, to uproot bigotry, intolerance, misogyny, racism, discrimination, and violence in all its forms, to celebrate the many faces of God reflected in the wondrous diversity of humanity.

To welcome the stranger and the immigrant and to honor the gifts of those who seek refuge and possibility here, as they have since before this nation was born.

Let justice well up like waters, and righteousness like a mighty stream (Amos 5:24).

NESHAMA CARLEBACH at CBST
3/13, 6:30 pm, CBST; Kabbalat Shabbat Services & Oneg

CBST invites you to a special evening with award-winning singer, songwriter and educator, Neshama Carlebach. Neshama will join CBST for Kabbalat Shabbat services, and then following services, will offer some more beautiful music while in conversation with Senior Rabbi Sharon Kleinbaum around Neshama’s relationship to her father, and to the Me Too movement. “I accept the fullness of who my father Shlomo Carlebach was, flaws and all. I am in this conversation. I am also broken. (Neshama Carlebach, “My sisters, I hear you,” The Times of Israel).”

A six-time entrant in the Grammy Awards, Neshama has sold over one million records, making her one of today’s best-selling Jewish artists in the world. As the first then-Orthodox woman of her generation to perform for a mixed-gender audience, Neshama is a strong advocate for religious pluralism and human rights. She has sparked public conversations with brave forays into the place of women in Judaism and today’s world. Read more at https://neshamacarlebach.com/bio/

Fabulous Chamber Music Concert for Social Justice to Benefit CBST
2/24, 7-8:30 pm, CBST; reception follows
CBST member and violist Adria Benjamin & her esteemed colleagues present chamber music to bring us beauty, meaning, & comfort. Admission and your gift of any amount support music at CBST and our bold social justice work. Tickets: $20 in advance or $25 at the door + requested contribution. Donors who give $180 or more will be acknowledged as sponsors on the printed program.

Free, Confidential HIV & Hep C Testing
2/26, 4:30-7 pm, CBST
Do you know your HIV status? As Maimonides wrote, “When keeping the body in health and vigor, one walks in the ways of G-d.” As part of CBST’s Talk to Me About HIV project, we will be holding free, confidential HIV & Hep C testing on-site—so come get tested and know your status. Registration is not required; walk-ins are welcome. If you feel comfortable, we appreciate an email ahead to reserve an appointment: TalkHIV@cbst.org Testing provided by GMHC, including INSTI 90 second test for HIV and ORAQUICK blood test for HEP C. This project was funded by the New York City Department of Health and Mental Hygiene through a contract with Public Health Solutions.
Bold, Spiritual Community of Resistance & Love

The CBST Bail Bond Fund
One of the most immediate ways to reunite detained immigrants with their families is paying their bail; the detainee is released to pursue their case while living in their community. Make your tax-deductible contribution by check with memo: CBST Bail Bond Fund or give at bit.ly/cbstbailbond. Proceeds support New Sanctuary Coalition's "Life Bond Fund," which has freed 25 immigrants.

Our Inheritance: The Neurobiology of Trans-Generational Trauma
3/7, 1-3 pm, CBST; REGISTER: http://bit.ly/OurInheritance
A program of CBST, the Middle East & Me – Dr. Judy Hollander, a member of our congregation, will join her brother Dr. Stephen Porges in a conversation moderated by Steve's son Seth Porges, discussing the neurobiological underpinnings of trans-generational trauma in Israel and the US, the impacts on mental and physical health and capacity to be welcoming to those who do not share common history, and how it might influence our view of social justice and politics.

RUSA LGBT Wednesdays, 6 pm, CBST
Sanctuary at CBST: Weekly Pro Se Immigration Legal Clinic

Wednesdays, 6-8:30 pm, CBST

Community members assist immigrants & asylum seekers with asylum applications & other steps on their paths through our labyrinthine immigration system. New volunteers always welcome! Email Noah Habeeb (sanctuary@cbst.org) for info & let us know you'll be joining us so we can provide training &/or mentoring.

Pro Se Immigration Clinic Training

If you are not a lawyer and would like to volunteer at CBST's weekly Pro Se Immigration Legal Clinic, CBST will be hosting an Immigration Clinic Training with Seeking Asylum and Finding Empowerment (SAFE) and New Sanctuary Coalition (NSC), for the general public. Here you will be trained on the skills you'll need to provide vital assistance at CBST's weekly clinic. Questions? Contact sanctuary@cbst.org.
Bold, Spiritual Community of Resistance & Love

Resistance: Calls and Cards
Thursdays, 12:30-2 pm, CBST
Got something to say to your government? We'll provide pizza & coach you to make phone calls & write postcards to your elected officials. Make your voice heard in DC & Albany. Bring a cell phone & your fighting spirit!
Questions? Contact Sabrina (sabrinalfarber@gmail.com).

Welcoming Visit at Islamic Center at NYU
Fridays, 12:45-2:30 pm, 238 Thompson St.
Questions? Ira Rosenblum (houseofpeace@cbst.org);

CBST Ending Mass Incarceration Team invites you to:
Osborne Association Artist Gallery w/ photographer Joseph Rodriguez & artist Jesse Krimes
2/27, 6:30pm; Marble Collegiate Church (1 W. 29th St), give.classy.org/Osborne-Artist-Event
Joseph Rodriguez will share photos telling the story of one of Osborne's own reentry program participants, Scott Ortiz, as he readjusts after 15 years of incarceration. Jesse Krimes will present artwork hand-printed during his incarceration using a sheet, newspaper clippings, a spoon, soap, & hair gel. Join us and explore the experience of those affected by the criminal justice system.

Sanctuary City
New York Theatre Workshop, 3/4-4/12
DREAMers. Love(r)s. Life-long friends. Negotiating the promise of safety and the weight of responsibility, they’ll fight to establish a place for themselves and each other in America. 2018 Pulitzer Prize winner, NYTW Usual Suspect, and former 2050 Fellow Martyna Majok brings us an unforgettable story that asks what we’re willing to sacrifice for someone we love.
