Let There Be Love/Hashkiveinu
English lyrics by Noah Aronson

Let there be love
And understanding among us
Let peace and friendship be our shelter from life's storm
Hashkiveinu, Adonai Eloheinu
Hashkiveinu, l'shalom

Earth Song
Words and music by Frank Ticheli

Sing, be, live, see.
This dark stormy hour,
The wind, it stirs.
The scorched earth cries out in vain:
O war and power, you blind and blur.
The torn heart cries out in pain.
But music and singing have been my refuge,
And music and singing shall be my light.
A light of song, shining strong: Alleluia!
Through darkness and pain and strife, I'll sing.
I'll be, live, see...Peace.
Peace.
Mi Shebeirach

Text: Shabbat morning Torah service liturgy, adapted by Benjie Ellen Schiller

Mi Shebeirach avoteinu, mi Shebeirach imoteinu, hu y'vareich et kol hakahal hakadosh hazeh.
May the One who blessed our fathers,
May the One who blessed our mothers,
Bless us, too, this holy congregation.

The people gathered here today who make us what we are:
Those who give funds for heat and light;
Those who give help to the stranger and poor;
Your sons and your daughters, the families yet to be--
May you know the blessing of peace.
L’dor Vador (From Generation to Generation)

Words and music: Josh Nelson

We are gifts and we are blessings;
We are history in song;
We are hope
And we are healing;
We are learning to be strong.

We are words and we are stories;
We are pictures of the past.
We are carriers of wisdom;
Not the first and not the last.

L’dor vador nagid godlecha;
L’dor vador we protect this chain.
From generation to generation;
L’dor vador - these lips shall praise your name.

Looking back on the journey
That we carry in our hearts;
From the shadow of the mountain
To the waters that would part;
We are blessed and we are holy,
We are children of your way.
And the words that bring us meaning
We will have the strength to say:

L’dor vador…

PRAYER for OUR COUNTRY Rabbi Ayelet Cohen

Our God and God of our ancestors, bless this country and all who dwell within it.
Help us to experience the blessings of our lives and circumstances,
To be vigilant, compassionate, and brave.
Strengthen us when we are afraid,
Help us to channel our anger, so that it motivates us to action.
Help us to feel our fear, so that we do not become numb.
Help us to be generous with others, so that we raise each other up.
Help us to be humble in our fear,
   knowing that as vulnerable as we feel,
   there are those at greater risk, and that it is our holy work to stand with them.
Help us to taste the sweetness of liberty,
To not take for granted the freedoms won
in generations past or in recent days.
To heal and nourish our democracy,
   that it may be like a tree planted by the water
   whose roots reach down to the stream;
it need not fear drought when it comes,
its leaves are always green (Jeremiah 17:8).

Source of all Life,
Guide our leaders with righteousness,
Strengthen their hearts, but keep them from hardening.
That they may use their influence and authority to speak truth and act for justice (Isaiah 16:3-5).
May all who dwell in this country
   share in its bounty, enjoy its freedoms,
   and be protected by its laws.
May this nation use its power and wealth
to be a voice for justice,
   peace, and equality for all who dwell on earth.
May we be strong and have courage
To be bold in our action and deep in our compassion,
To discern when we must listen and when we must act,
To uproot bigotry, intolerance, misogyny, racism, discrimination, and violence in all its forms,
To celebrate the many faces of God reflected in the wondrous diversity of humanity,
To welcome the stranger and the immigrant and to honor the gifts of those who seek refuge and possibility here, as they have since before this nation was born.
Let justice well up like waters, and righteousness
like a mighty stream (Amos 5:24)
