Rabbi Kleinbaum's thoughts on "Spiritual Lessons for Today's Plague"

“The CBST community knows what it takes to live through a plague. Love and compassion and support are at the center of survival. Remember to be kind and generous while being cautious and vigilant about staying healthy and keeping others safe. We will continue being a powerful spiritual community of resistance and love. May the Holy One surround you and your loved ones and give you strength and comfort as we face the uncertainty of the times we are in. Be the reason people have faith in the goodness of others.”

—Rabbi Sharon Kleinbaum

COMPOSER FEATURE

Pinchas Minkowsky was born in Belaya Tserkov, Ukraine, where his father was the town cantor. After further study in Vienna, he spent three years at the Kahal Adas Yeshurun Synagogue in New York City, but was recalled to Odessa in 1892 as Chief Cantor of the Brody Synagogue, an office he held for thirty years. He lectured at the Jewish Conservatory in Odessa, was chairman of the Ha-Zamir musical society, and published many articles on chazzanut and Jewish music. His setting of Hayim Nahman Bialik’s poem “Shabbat Hamalkah” is a much-loved song sung on Friday evenings in Israel and in many communities and synagogues throughout the world.

Al Tasteir (Based on Psalm 27:9)
Music by Debbie Friedman

Don’t hide Your face from me;
I’m asking for Your help.
I call to You; please hear my prayers, O God.
If You would answer me
As I have called to You,
Please heal me now.
Don’t hide Your face from me.

Condolences

The CBST community extends condolences to mourners among us:
CBST member Ilan Scharfstein on the death of his mother, Roosje Scharfstein, z”l, who died Mar. 23 at age 91.
CBST services coordinator and member Patrice Ruel on the death of his father, Claude Ruel, z”l, who died Mar. 24 of COVID-19.

May God comfort you among all who mourn. We pray for peace.
PRAYER for OUR COUNTRY  Rabbi Ayelet Cohen

Our God and God of our ancestors, bless this country and all who dwell within it.
Help us to experience the blessings of our lives and circumstances,
To be vigilant, compassionate, and brave.
Strengthen us when we are afraid,
Help us to channel our anger, so that it motivates us to action.
Help us to feel our fear, so that we do not become numb.
Help us to be generous with others, so that we raise each other up.
Help us to be humble in our fear,
   knowing that as vulnerable as we feel,
   there are those at greater risk, and that it is our holy work to stand with them.

Help us to taste the sweetness of liberty,
To not take for granted the freedoms won
in generations past or in recent days.
To heal and nourish our democracy,
   that it may be like a tree planted by the water
   whose roots reach down to the stream;
it need not fear drought when it comes,
it leaves are always green (Jeremiah 17:8).

Source of all Life,
Guide our leaders with righteousness,
Strengthen their hearts, but keep them from hardening.
That they may use their influence and authority to speak truth and act for justice (Isaiah 16:3-5).

May all who dwell in this country
share in its bounty, enjoy its freedoms,
and be protected by its laws.
May this nation use its power and wealth
to be a voice for justice,
   peace, and equality for all who dwell on earth.
May we be strong and have courage
To be bold in our action and deep in our compassion,
To discern when we must listen and when we must act,
To uproot bigotry, intolerance, misogyny, racism,
discrimination, and violence in all its forms,
To celebrate the many faces of God reflected in the wondrous diversity of humanity,
To welcome the stranger and the immigrant and to honor the gifts of those who seek refuge and possibility here, as they have since before this nation was born.
Let justice well up like waters, and righteousness
like a mighty stream (Amos 5:24)
Prayer for Healers

May the One who blessed our ancestors
Bless all those who put themselves at risk to care for the sick
Physicians and nurses and orderlies
Technicians and home health aides
EMTs and pharmacists
Hospital social workers and respiratory therapists

(Please include other frontline healthcare workers. And bless especially _______)

Who navigate the unfolding dangers of the world each day,
To tend to those they have sworn to help.
Bless them in their coming home and bless them in their going out.
Ease their fear. Sustain them.
Source of all breath, healer of all beings,
Protect them and restore their hope.
Strengthen them, that they may bring strength;
Keep them in health, that they may bring healing.
Help them know again a time when they can breathe without fear.
Bless the sacred work of their hands.
May this plague pass from among us, speedily and in our days.

JOB LISTING: Director of Development, CBST
Applications reviewed on a rolling basis until the position is filled.
Reporting to the Executive Director and working closely with the Board President, Senior Rabbi, and the Development Chair(s) and Committee, the Development Director is responsible for designing, implementing, and leading a sustainable development strategy to support CBST’s ambitious goals for today and for securing its financial health for the future. Development is an integral part of CBST and is interwoven with everything the synagogue does to support its mission. To apply online, visit https://app.trinethire.com/companies/22607-cbst/jobs
PROGRAMMING

Frontline: A Meeting of Healthcare Professionals & Their Family Members with Rabbi Sharon Kleinbaum
Sunday, 3/29, 6 pm, via Zoom: https://zoom.us/j/568226295
Meeting ID: 568 226 295; phone: +1 646 876 9923 US (New York)
At a time when most of our city is sheltering in place, our doctors, nurses, therapists, and other healthcare workers are wrestling with COVID-19 and what it means to provide care in this new age. With a complete shortage of resources and inadequate means of testing, healthcare professionals are feeling ill-equipped and overwhelmed, struggling with how to best serve a panicked community. Join Rabbi Sharon Kleinbaum in a meeting to share experiences and discuss how we can support each other as we make our way through this. This meeting is reserved for healthcare professionals and their family members.
