

SWING STATES

- States that are in contention and have changed party allegiance over the years
- Presidential swing states are not necessarily Senatorial swing states and vice versa
- Determination is not an exact science - varies by media outlet and/or pundit

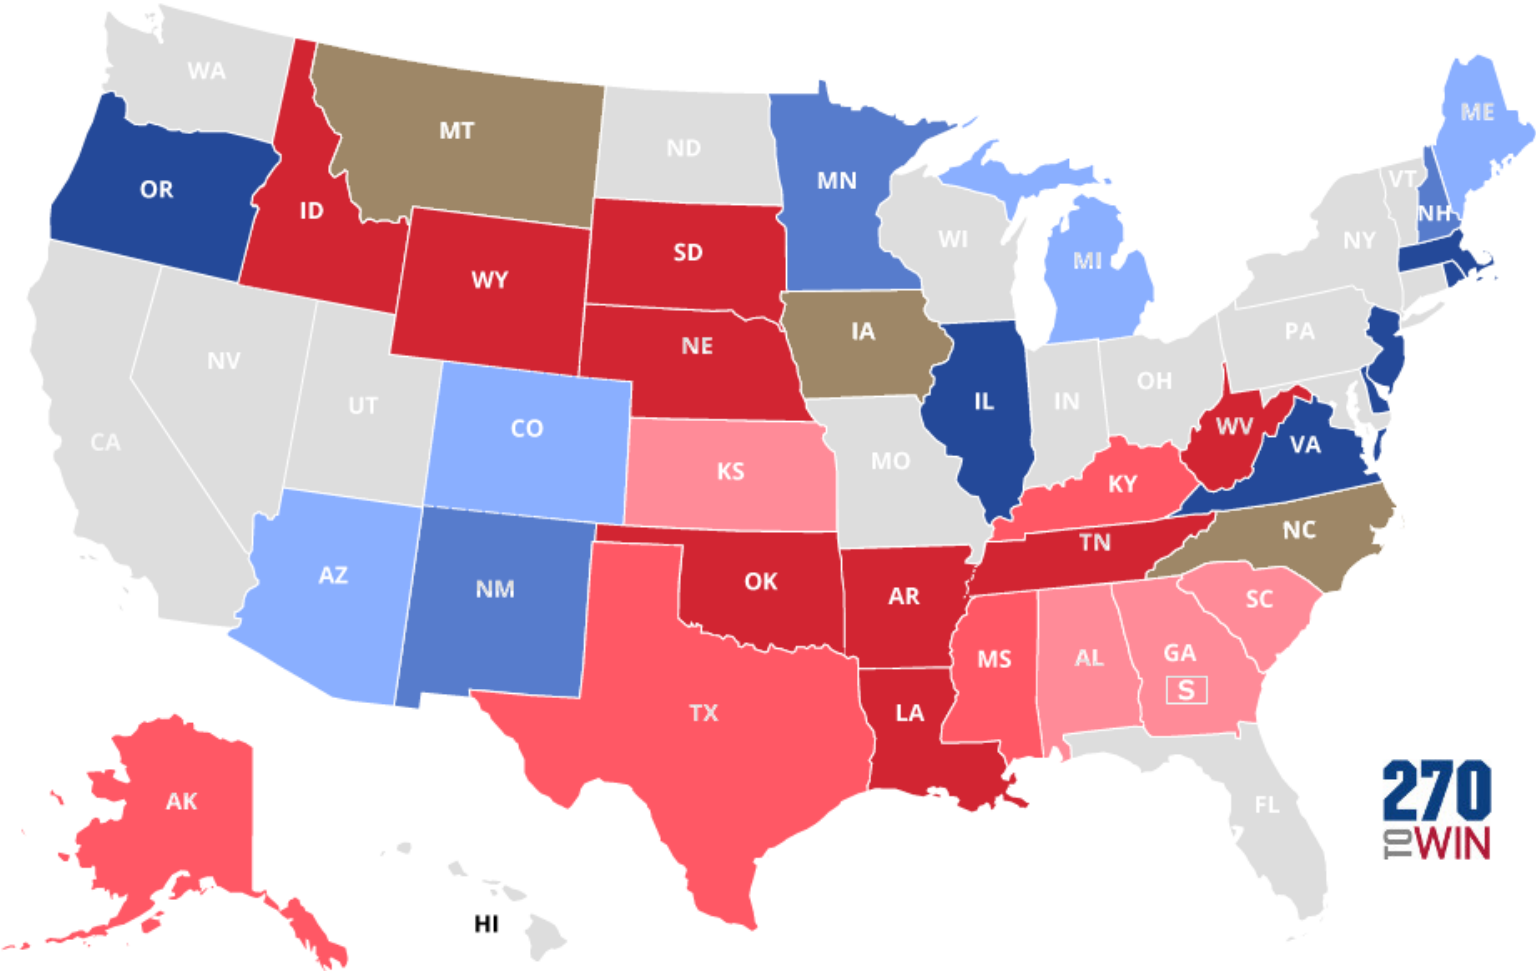

Presidential Swing States – by Consensus

Presidential States - Pay attention

- Arizona – 11 Electoral Votes
- Florida – 29 Electoral Votes
- Georgia – 16 Electoral votes
- North Carolina – 15 Electoral Votes
- Ohio – 18 Electoral Votes

Senatorial Swing States by Consensus

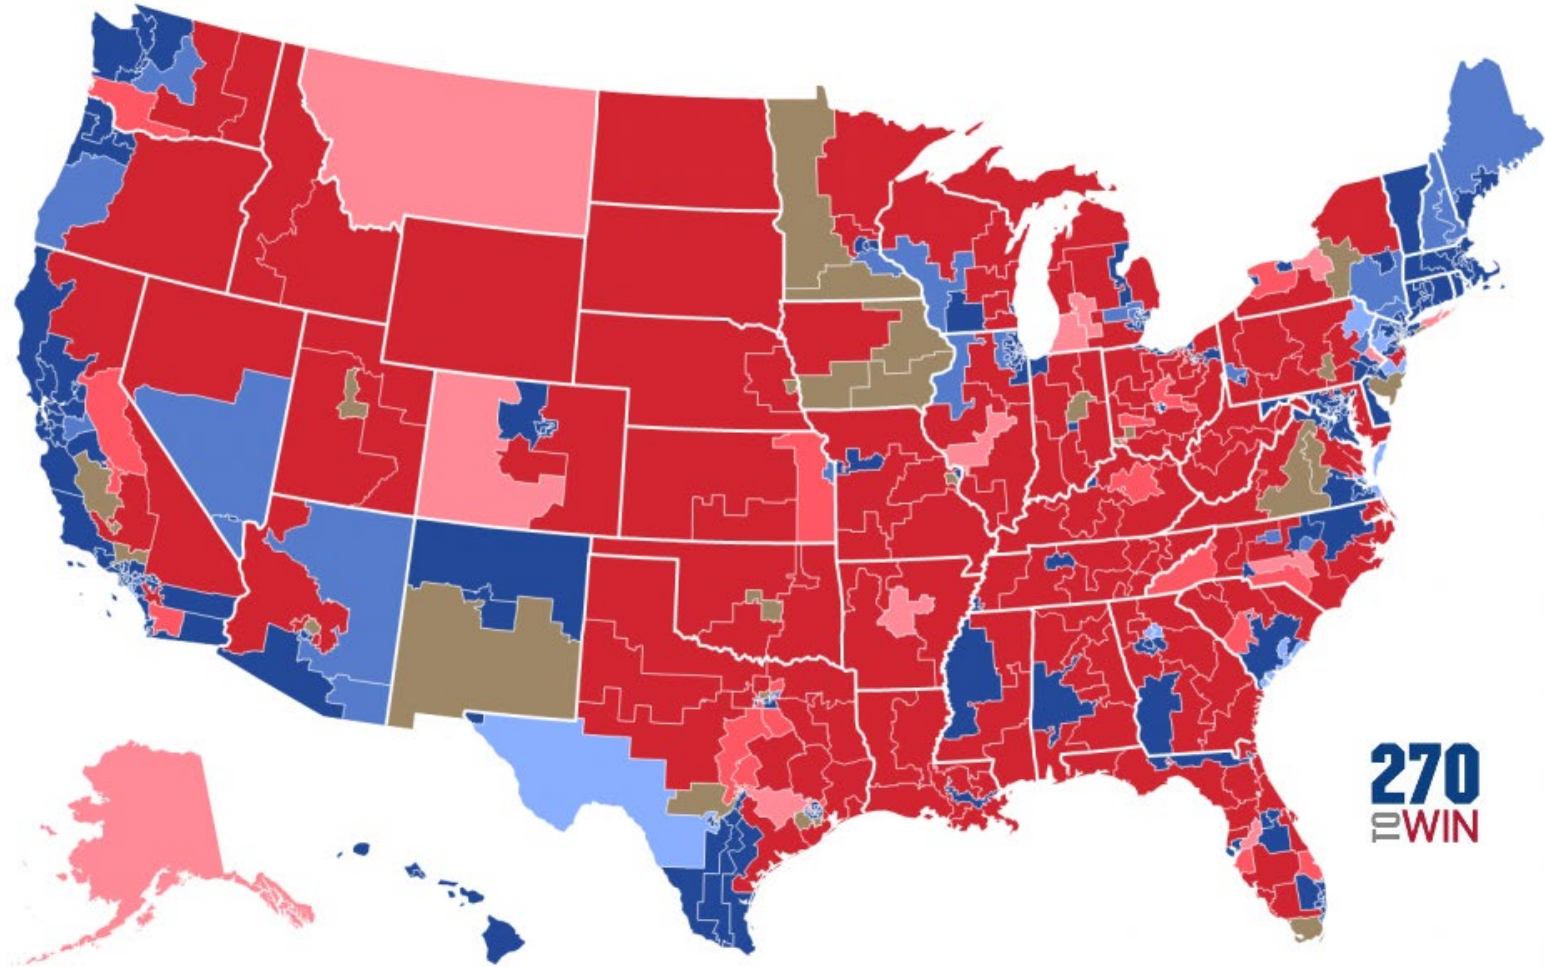

Senate Races - Pay attention to

- Montana – Daines (IR)* v Bullock
- Iowa – Ernst (IR) v Greenfield
- North Carolina – Tillis (IR) v Harrison

* - Incumbent/Republican

HOUSE SWING STATES BY CONSENSUS

26 House Toss Up Races – A few to Consider

- New York - 11 – Max Rose (ID*) (Brooklyn, SI)
- New York - 22 – Brindisi (ID) (Upstate)
- New York – 02 – No incumbent – Nassau County

- New Jersey – 02 – Van Drew (IR)

- Florida – 26 – Mucarsel-Powell (ID)

 - Incumbent/Republican or Democrat

Get Out The Vote Ideas

- Texting
- Phone banking
- Letter/postcard writing
- Leveraging your networks
- Donating

Texting

- Resistance Labs (<https://resistancelabs.com/>) – Aggregates grassroots campaigns around the country that encourage voter turnout and education
- Field Team 6 (<https://www.fieldteam6.org/>) by partnering with local organizations to text and phone bank to register voters and return purged voters to the rolls.
- Mobilize.US – (<https://www.mobilize.us/>) aggregates small and large - scale actions from in person (canvassing/lit drops) to texting, phonebanking etc. Search function is very handy

Phone Banking

- Choose a candidate – check out their website and sign up
- Turnout 2020 (<https://turnout2020.org/>) – texting inconsistent democratic and swing state voters to make sure they have the info they need about November
- Reclaim our Vote (<http://centerforcommonground.org/main/index.php/campaigns/reclaim-our-vote>) – Part of the Center for Common Ground – they are calling voters in voter suppression states to provide current info on how/when/where they can vote. Esp. targets communities of color and others who are underrepresented

Writing – Long and Short Form

- Vote Forward – (<https://votefwd.org/>) Write letters to inconsistent voters nationwide telling them why YOU vote and urging them to join you. You will need: paper, a printer, envelopes and stamps.
- Postcards to Voters – (<https://postcardstovoters.org/volunteer/>) friendly, handwritten reminders from volunteers to targeted voters in close, key races coast to coast. Campaigns are added all the time.

Be a Pollworker or Recruit Some!

- POLL HERO - <https://www.pollhero.org/> - join here to recruit college age students to work at the polls this election day. Lack of volunteers will force polling locations to close. Help fill the gap!
- POWER TO THE POLLS - <https://www.powerthepolls.org/about> – another great site that is working to recruit poll workers, too

JOIN US ON THURSDAYS!

- Resistance! Calls & Cards Meets Democracy Action Team
- Every Thursday on Zoom from 12:30-1:30 (or so)
- Get involved. Share ideas. Ask questions. Learn about new opportunities.
- Schmooze
- <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/87441818544>