

Yom Kippur יום הכיפורים

10 TISHREI 5783 | 4-5 OCT 2022

CONGREGATION BEIT SIMCHAT TORAH

ברוכים הבאים Welcome

Welcome to Congregation Beit Simchat Torah.

We gather to mark these Yamim Nora'im, Days of Awe—one community seeking to bring more peace to our souls as we navigate an uncertain world. Together, we bring life to ancient words and music that brought comfort to previous generations in good times and bad—whether these prayers are new to you or you can recite them from memory, whether you are physically present in the sanctuary in New York or spiritually present on our livestream, you are part of this community. Welcome.

Congregation Beit Simchat Torah is an LGBTQS+ synagogue for people of all sexual orientations and gender expressions. We are a community of seekers. We don't hide or deny any part of ourselves. We take pride in all that makes us who we are. We strive to create a kehillah kedoshah, a sacred community, built on the pillars of social justice, study and prayer. We do not believe in a single path toward spiritual wholeness; we are a community in which personal journeys are respected. We strive to be kind and generous while being cautious and vigilant about staying healthy and keeping others safe in this time of plagues. We live with the tension and creativity of diversity, open to voices different than our own, listening to the voices of our tradition, ancient and contemporary, listening to voices of challenge.

In Psalm 118 we read, “Even ma'asu habonim haitah l'rosh pinah. The stone which the builders rejected has become the cornerstone.” The Jewish people have proven again and again that persecution, fear, and hatred do not define a human being or a people. At CBST we take that lesson to heart. We refuse to be defined by those who reject us. We will continue being a powerful spiritual community of resistance and love. Our souls reach to the heavens.

L'shanah tovah umetukah/Blessings for a sweet new year,

Rabbi Sharon Kleinbaum
Senior Rabbi

You may be familiar with the Hebrew greeting “b'ruchim haba'im, which literally means “blessed are those who arrive,” and more commonly is used to mean “welcome.” But Hebrew is a very gendered language, and b'ruchim haba'im is masculine plural. There are several projects to “queerify” Hebrew and to play with gender and nonbinary Hebrew. It's a very exciting linguistic moment. This is one attempt that is being used now in the LGBTQ+ Hebrew speaking world. It includes both the masculine and feminine and rejects a simple gendered binary. Whoever you are, you are blessed and you are welcome.

CBST's Mission

Congregation Beit Simchat Torah (CBST) is a vibrant spiritual community and a progressive voice within Judaism. Founded in 1973, CBST attracts and welcomes gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender, non-binary, queer and straight individuals and families who share common values. Passionate, provocative, and deeply Jewish, CBST champions a Judaism that rejoices in diversity, denounces social injustice wherever it exists, and strives for human rights for all people.

We are a house of prayer, offering both traditional and liberal services and lifecycle events.

We are a house of learning, continually expanding our knowledge and deepening our understanding of our religious and cultural heritage.

We are a house of refuge and healing, offering community support and pastoral care.

We are a house of conscience, fighting for the full equality of LGBTQ people locally, nationally and internationally.

We are committed to Israel and engaged in supporting efforts to secure peace, justice and equality for all.

CBST's High Holy Day Open Door

Since our first High Holy Day service in 1973, attendance has grown from 100 to 6,000 in person, with many more thousands online. The generosity of Open Door donors, members, and friends alike enables CBST to share our extraordinary communal experiences with all who wish to attend. Each one who contributes helps all of us live up to our ideals.

As we begin...

We thank you for observing our health and safety guidelines for High Holy Days services, which can be reviewed at cbst.org/content/healthy-new-year.

Cell phones and other electronic devices should be silenced during services.

Photography/videography/audio recording of services are not permitted.

Accessibility: We have designated areas for open captioning and wheelchair accessibility.

All-Gender Restrooms: At CBST, we are proud of our diversity. Restrooms are available for anyone of any gender.

At Masonic Hall, there are marked all-gender accessible single stalls on the 2nd Floor. Look for the signs, or ask an usher or staff member for specific location.

At CBST on 30th Street, all restrooms are all-gender and accessible: Lower Level (including a single stall), Main Level (single stall), and Balcony Level (single stall).

Restrooms and other sex-segregated facilities are often places where LGBTQ+ and non-confirming people face harassment and violence. Commenting on gender expression, body parts, or choice of restroom is disrespectful and creates unsafe space. Ushers can help direct you to restrooms. Contact our clergy with any questions: rabbi@cbst.org.

Enosh (Psalm 103:15-17) | אנוש

Louis Lewandowski (1821–1894)

Our days are like grass.

We bloom like flowers of the field.

A wind passes by, and we are no more;

Our own place no longer knows us.

But the Eternal's steadfast love is for all eternity toward those who fear God.

And God's righteousness

extends to all generations.

Who By Fire?

Music and Text: Leonard Cohen, arr. Joyce Rosenzweig

And who by fire, who by water

Who in the sunshine, who in the night time

Who by high ordeal, who
by common trial

Who in your merry merry month of may

Who by very slow decay

And who shall I say is calling?

And who in her lonely slip,
who by barbiturate

Who in solitude, who by something blunt

Who by avalanche, who by powder

Who for their greed, who for their hunger

And who shall I say is calling?

PRAYER for OUR COUNTRY Rabbi Ayelet Cohen

Our God and God of our ancestors, bless this country and all who dwell within it. Help us to experience the blessings of our lives and circumstances, To be vigilant, compassionate, and brave. Strengthen us when we are afraid, Help us to channel our anger, so that it motivates us to action. Help us to feel our fear, so that we do not become numb. Help us to be generous with others, so that we raise each other up. Help us to be humble in our fear, knowing that as vulnerable as we feel, there are those at greater risk, and that it is our holy work to stand with them. Help us to taste the sweetness of liberty, To not take for granted the freedoms won in generations past or in recent days. To heal and nourish our democracy, that it may be like a tree planted by the water whose roots reach down to the stream; it need not fear drought when it comes, its leaves are always green (Jeremiah 17:8).	אלוהינו ואלוהי אבותנו ואמותינו, ברכך את ארצנו ואת כל היושבות והיושבים בה יחד לבכנו להודות לך על חיינו ועל הזמן הזה להיות דרוכות, אמיצים, ומלאי חמלה, חזקנו וחזק ידנו כאשר אנו אחוזים כפחד סייע בידינו לנתב את כעסנו לידי מעשה חזק לבכנו לחוש את מלוא הפחד שלנו כדי שלא נפחד לאדישות סייע לנו להשפיע נדיבות על אחרים כדי שגרים זה זה זו . סייע לנו להיות צנועות כפחד, כדי שנדע כי גם כשאנו מרגישים פגיעות, יש אחרות, הנמצאות בסכין גבוה אף יותר, וזו חובתנו הקדושה להיות עמן. ברכנו בטעם המתוק של החופש כדי שנשכיל להעריך את החופש לו זכינו בדורות קודמים ובעת הזו לרפא ולחזק את הדמוקרטיה שלנו שתהיה קצין שתגול על-כיסם, וצל- יביל וישלח שרשינו, וְלֹא יִרְאֶה כִּי-יָבֵא חֶם, וְנִהְיֶה עֲלֵהוּ רֵעָנָה; (ירמיהו יז, ח)
Source of all Life, Guide our leaders with righteousness Strengthen their hearts, but keep them from hardening. That they may use their influence and authority to speak truth and act for justice (Isaiah 16:3-5). May all who dwell in this country share in its bounty, enjoy its freedoms, and be protected by its laws. May this nation use its power and wealth to be a voice for justice, peace, and equality for all who dwell on earth. May we be strong and have courage To be bold in our action and deep in our compassion, To discern when we must listen and when we must act, To uproot bigotry, intolerance, misogyny, racism, discrimination, and violence in all its forms, To celebrate the many faces of God reflected in the wondrous diversity of humanity, To welcome the stranger and the immigrant and to honor the gifts of those who seek refuge and possibility here, as they have since before this nation was born. Let justice well up like waters, and righteousness like a mighty stream (Amos 5:24)	שכינה, אם כל חי, שלחי אורך ואתך למנהיגנו חזקי בלבבותיהם שלא יתקשו שישתמשו בכוחן כדי לדבר אמת ולפעול בצדק (ישעיהו טז, ג-ה) מי יתן וכל יושבי הארץ יחלקו בעושרה, ישגשו בחופש שתציע, ויהיו מוגנים בחוקיה מי יתן ואומה זו שתמש בכוחה ובעושרה על מנת לקדם צדק, חופש ושלום לכל יושבי תבל מי יתן ונהיה חזקתך ואמיצים מי יתן ונהיה נועזים במעשי ידנו ועמוקות בחמלה שכלבנו שנבחזן מתי עלינו להקשיב ומתי עלינו לפעול לעקור שנאה, זנונות, שובניזם, אפליה, אלימות ככל צרדה, לחגוג את עלם אלוהים בפנים שונות המשתקפות בכל המגוון האנושי לקבל את אור הזר ואת המהגרת, ולכבד את המתנות שמביא כל מי שמבקשת מקלט והזדמנות בארץ זו, כפי שהיה מאז לפני שאומה זו נולדה וְיָגֵל בְּפִיָּם, מִשְׁפָּט; וְצַדִּיקָה, קָנְתָה אֵיתָן (עמוס ה כד)

Our lives are enriched by all you give to CBST. We briefly note our diverse programs and acknowledge and thank our dedicated leaders and volunteers.

A BOOK OF APPRECIATION— to thank our Volunteers

TORAH. AVODAH. G'MILUT HASADIM. The world stands on three things: on Torah, on sacred service, and on acts of loving-kindness. These principles from Pirkei Avot (Ethics of Our Ancestors) guide our lives at CBST. We study Torah and pray together, we work together for the betterment of our community and those that need our support, and we give of ourselves in an effort to mirror God's love for humankind.

On the pages that follow, we acknowledge those who—each in their own way—carried out these guiding principles during the year.

As we begin the New Year, we note the dedicated volunteers who contributed their time, talent and effort to help bring vision to life in our ever-growing Jewish kehilah. And we recognize those who provided essential financial support for our community's religious, educational, social, and social justice activities.

This is one small way of expressing our thanks and gratitude to each and every one of you.

[A sincere effort has been made to verify the accuracy of these listings. We apologize for any inadvertent errors or omissions. Please advise the CBST office so that we can make amends.]

AGING TOGETHER Aging Together empowers CBST members age 55+ to foster diverse meaningful relationships, access and share important resources, and think strategically about the future. Aging Together is for everyone—partnered, single, with or without children, local or not—because whatever our situation, we're all Aging Together. WITH APPRECIATION FOR CBST'S MAJOR DONORS

Annual giving, including membership, programmatic underwriting, sponsorships, High Holy Day contributions, tributes, and other meaningful gifts strengthen CBST. These gifts sustain our inspiring services, enriching educational programs, community-building events, and the extraordinary social justice work that changes lives and makes history, for our members and for our world.

Every gift is important. Each donor enables all of us to live up to our ideals. Thank you.

With deep appreciation, we acknowledge donors whose cumulative charitable giving to CBST (excluding previous Capital contributions) totals $1,800+ from September 1, 2021 through August 31, 2022.

Thank you for your commitment, passion, and generosity.

ROSH PINAH (Cornerstone) MEMBERS

 Indicates CBST Members whose cumulative charitable giving (excluding Capital) totaled $3,600+ (Couples) or $1,800+ (Individuals) from Sept. 2021 to Aug. 2022. Membership and designation contributions form the consistent financial foundation enabling our leadership to plan wisely and with confidence. Rosh Pinah Members are invited to an annual reception and teaching.*

ABOUT CBST

CBST, the world's largest congregation dedicated to serving people of all sexual orientations and gender identities, builds upon the ritual, liturgical and theological heritage of Judaism, providing a spiritual home for Jews and non-Jews affected by and seeking to transform a homophobic, sexist, racist society.

CBST's very existence is a political act of courage and perseverance. As the escalating values debate centers on the intersection of religion and LGBTQ+ identity, CBST provides a much-needed progressive Jewish voice to counter the religious right. CBST is committed to advancing human rights locally, nationally, and worldwide, including in the State of Israel, institutionally and through the work of its activist participants.

CBST is a distinguished center of LGBTQ+, feminist and activist theological innovation, writing siddurim (prayerbooks) with inclusive, non-sexist language; creating liturgy that addresses LGBTQ+ issues and life cycle events; and reinterpreting and adapting traditional Jewish law and custom to reflect and support the needs of its community. Over 50 students have become CBST Cooperberg-Rittmaster Rabbinical Interns and Cantorial Interns, moving on to transform the mainstream Jewish world, making it a safer, more welcoming place for all.

CBST, a rare example of religious pluralism in action, is not formally affiliated with any Jewish movement or denomination. Rejoicing in diversity, CBST offers a variety of religious experiences, including traditional and liberal services to meet the needs of its vibrant, inclusive congregation.

CBST's Open Door policy, supported by contributions from members and visitors, welcomes all to all services and observances throughout the year, always free of charge. Attendance at High Holy Day services has grown from just one hundred in 1973 to the thousands we welcome today.

CBST is grateful for support from thousands of individual donors, numerous donor-advised and family foundations, and institutions. The Ford Foundation helped strengthen our infrastructure and voice for theological innovation and civic engagement. UJA-Federation of NY fostered our relationship with the Jerusalem Open House LGBT Center in Israel, provided Hurricane Sandy relief funds, supported outreach to Jewish Russian-speakers and other engagement programs. Arcus, Calamus, H. van Ameringen Foundation, the Moriah Fund, and Atran helped expand the impact of our social justice work. The NYC Council Dept. of Health & Mental Hygiene/Public Health Solutions helped fund the groundbreaking “Talk to Me About HIV” project. Jewish Education Project, Covenant Foundation, and Lehrer-Seller Family Fund support education for families with children.

CBST provides a broad spectrum of ritual observance and liturgy; ongoing and special educational opportunities such as Lehrhaus Judaica adult education programs, comprehensive child and adult B*Mitzvah programs, the innovative Limmud b'Shabbat School for children and their families; active age-based social groups; we make an extensive and profound commitment to social justice initiatives, often partnering with local and global agencies.

CBST offers sliding scale fair share Membership, with enhanced levels that sustain this program, enabling all to affiliate regardless of financial circumstances or challenges. Contributions may be made annually or on our automatic monthly Continuing Membership plan. Membership is an essential, meaningful statement of mutual support—a precious connection to CBST and the values we share.
