

Celebrating Ten Years on 30th Street

Original Michael Lehrman/ML lyric (or “M-L-ody”) in style of classic tune: “Home For The Holidays”

We've a showcase for arts and community.
And there's no place like home (that we sing of),
A great space in our hearts for peace and unity.
It's our sacred place, diverse for prayers and love.

We had been Wand'rin' Jews for 40 years before our tenure here.
“We outgrew Bethune, said search committee, “soon.”
So many venues, memory jostles. Long-term at Holy Apostles.

New locales, to be specific: now West 30th's terrific.

Loving friends, loyal members, have been agog,
And God Knows, we've good reason to spread cheer
As the count mounts: one decade since our synagogue
Has established perfect residency HERE.

[🥂To our 10-year anniversary right here! 🥂]

There is no place like 1-3-0 West 30th.
It's our own bit of heaven, we repeat.
Love our own little haven on West 30th,
Our forever home is on 30th Street.
[Yes, this is our home. Oh, home can be so sweet.]

It's true we rented Javits Center and Masonic Hall as well.
Note, each venue that we'd enter cast its spell.
So there is really no comparing, when we're sharing Home Sweet Home.
This one's more than mere statistic — we're just being realistic.

It's the “go place” where ‘faith-based’ face ritual,
Which enriches us — on which you will agree.
There is NO PLACE like 1-3-0 West 30th.
It's our sanctuary home: C.B.S.T.
We can all attest we're bless'd. C.B.S.T.
